

FORM/REFORM basics

Thursday, March 3, 2005
Doral Eaglewood Conference Resort & Spa
Itasca, Illinois

Since 1983, FORM/REFORM has been the only national conference to address the full range of issues relating to the building, renovation and decoration of Catholic worship spaces. Following the 2002 conference in Houston, FORM/REFORM moved to a two year schedule - the 2004 conference was recently held in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles in August 2004. We are still finalizing the dates and location for the next national FORM/REFORM Conference – summer 2006.

In order to serve Catholic communities that are undertaking a building or renovation project before the next FORM/REFORM conference, FORM/REFORM*basics* will be offered on Thursday, March 3, 2005 preceding the Great Lakes Ministry ASSEMBLY.

The goals of FORM/REFORM*basics* are:

- ❧ to address the issues related to building, renovating or restoring Catholic worship spaces in light of the Church's sacramental and liturgical theology and current church documents.
- ❧ to foster the local community's search for solutions to the particular problems and challenges that its space presents
- ❧ to explore models for a local community's building process, including the development of a project team, and to explain the role of various professionals

FORM/REFORM*basics* is co-sponsored by
The Georgetown Center for Liturgy and
T.M. Enterprises of Rockford, Illinois

Making a Home in an Unsettled World

Home: What comes to mind?

- ❧ A building or people? — A place or a feeling? — A reality or a desire?
- ❧ Is HOME a place of insulation where you escape from the world, or is it constantly shifting as you respond to the world?
- ❧ Is it a source of security and comfort, where "everyone knows your name" and they have to let you in, or is the door sometimes locked and barred?
- ❧ How do you reconcile your ideas and longings for home with your life, your work, or your faith?

The questions are many and varied. So are the answers. Come pitch your tent with us for two days, exploring and challenging preconceived perceptions and easy answers.

This Lent come away to a gathering of pastoral ministers that is focused on renewing your spirit and stimulating your mind, rather than on promoting an agenda.

Perhaps together we can throw away some old images, building new, more life-giving ones. Together we might even discover gifts which can be found in our unsettled world.

Come refresh yourself in the relaxed atmosphere of a spa, rather than another nondescript conference hotel. Come build connections and friendships, growing beyond your own circle to include even the unexpected.

Come rest and be nurtured. Come be inspired.
Come to the Assembly.

- ❧ I was very impressed not only with the quality of the workshops but also the marvelous energy during last year's ASSEMBLY. It seemed that the Spirit was actively present among us. Through wonderful prayer and inspirational keynotes, the ASSEMBLY felt as much like a retreat as a ministry conference.
