Dear Conference Attendees,

Welcome to this Archdiocesan Catechetical Conference, “The Word of God in the Life and Mission of the Church.” The Synod of the same title, which was held in Rome last fall, addressed the need for more study, appreciation and understanding of the Holy Scriptures by Catholics throughout the world. The conference has been designed by this Archdiocese to bring to the forefront the study and understanding of Scripture for those of you in attendance. It is our hope that you will find the sessions enlightening and the worship and prayer a source of spiritual enrichment.

We acknowledge your commitment to ministry in your parishes and hope that what you learn at this conference will be shared with your students and other parishioners. Solid catechesis is essential to assure that who we are as Catholics is transmitted to all. Your work in this field is necessary and appreciated. Thank you for your response to God’s call in this ministry. We encourage you to continue what you do in the name of the Lord, Jesus.

I look forward to celebrating the Eucharist with you on Saturday afternoon as you complete your time at the conference.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Queridos Participantes de la Conferencia,

Bienvenidos a esta Conferencia Catequística Arquidiocesana, "La Palabra de Dios en la Vida y en la Misión de la Iglesia." El Sinodo con el mismo título, el cual se llevó a cabo en Roma el pasado otoño, enfatizó la necesidad para un mayor estudio, apreciación y entendimiento de las Sagradas Escrituras de los Católicos en todo el mundo. La conferencia ha sido diseñada por esta Arquidiócesis para poner en primer plano el estudio y el entendimiento de las Escrituras para todos ustedes que participan en esta conferencia. Esperamos que las sesiones les instruyan e iluminen y que el culto y la oración sean una fuente de enriquecimiento espiritual.

Reconocemos su compromiso al ministerio en sus parroquias y esperamos que lo que aprendan en esta conferencia sea compartido con sus estudiantes y otros feligreses. Una catequesis sólida es esencial para asegurar que lo que somos como Católicos es transmitido a todos. Su trabajo en este campo es necesario y apreciado. Gracias por su respuesta al llamado de Dios en este ministerio. Les animamos a que continúen haciendo lo que hacen en el nombre del Señor, Jesús.

Espero con interés celebrar la Eucaristía con ustedes el sábado en la tarde al final de esta conferencia.

Sinceramente en Cristo,

+ Daniel Cardinal DiNardo

Saturday, February 14, 2009

2:00 pm - 3:00 pm Grand Pavilion

Catholic Biblical Spirituality for Life in the Parish

What are the key elements that will put us in touch with both the Scripture readings at Mass and nourish our daily spiritual life of prayer as a member of a parish--this talk will explore how to develop a Catholic spirituality rooted in the Bible.

Rev. Allan Figueroa Deck, S.J.

Friday, February 13, 2009

9:15 am - 10:15 am Grand Pavilion

Culture: The Word Becoming Flesh

This talk develops the idea that the encounter between the Word of God and cultures is the context for all evangelization. This means that the Word must be incarnated in life. Father Deck will discuss how reason, imagination, memory and will are all involved in this process and how the process differs from culture to culture. The lack of awareness regarding culture and how it works is a major obstacle for the Church's evangelizing mission today in a world where cultures come more and more into contact with each other.

Sábado, Febrero 14, 2009

11:30 am - 12:30 pm Grand Pavilion

La Cultura: El Verbo Se Encarna

Esta plática desarrolla la idea de que el encuentro entre la Palabra de Dios y las culturas es el contexto para toda evangelización. Esto significa que la Palabra tiene que ser encarnada en la vida. El P. Deck discutirá como la razón, imaginación, memoria y voluntad se relacionan todas en este proceso y como el proceso varía de cultura en cultura. La falta de conciencia acerca de como funciona la cultura es un obstáculo mayor para la misión evangelizadora de la Iglesia hoy en el mundo donde las culturas se ponen en contacto cada vez más.

Word of God: Transforming Power of Catechesis

The National Directory for Catechesis reminds us that, "Sacred Scripture inspires, directs and nourishes the catechetical mission of the Church." (NDC, p.8, #3) The Word of God invites us to transformation as disciples of Jesus Christ and in our vocation as catechists. What is the place of Scripture in catechesis? How do we, through catechesis, proclaim the Word of God and invite others to transformation?

Disciples in Mission: Re-Claiming Our Baptismal Vocation

The author of 1 Peter reminds us that we are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation." But what does it mean to say that by baptism we all participate in the priesthood of Christ? This address will explore a baptismal spirituality that sends us into mission in the world as a priestly people.

Fundamentos bíblicos para la construcción de la paz

Una exploración cercana del estilo de vida y enseñanzas de Jesús en torno al perdón y la reconciliación (ej. Mt. 5, 38-48; 18, 21-35; 26, 28), mientras creaba comunidades de amigos, yendo más allá de sus diferencias naturales hasta el punto de estar dispuestos a dar su vida por amor al prójimo (Juan 13, 1-20).

- Clergy session presented by John Cavadini Scripture and Doctrine in Preaching
Scripture and Doctrine in Preaching This talk addresses the dichotomy priests often feel between preaching "scripturally" and preaching "catechetically" on issues of Christian doctrine. Homilies are supposed to be on the text of Scripture read for the day. Yet homilies are the most important catechetical opportunity for most adult Catholics, and the Fathers certainly used homilies catechetically. The talk uses the example of the Fathers of the Church and the CCC to show how this false dichotomy between preaching "Scripturally" and preaching "doctrinally" can be overcome.

101. Alice Camille, M. Div. God's Story and Ours: How Scripture Teaches Us Who We Are
A lot of folks are too intimidated to read the Bible. They have reasons! It's a big book written by ancient people in exotic lands about a world that seems very far away from our modern reality. But if we appreciate the role that storytelling played in biblical times--and in ours--we may find that the great story of Scripture has everything to do with us, in the here and now. Sponsored by ACTA
- Grand Pavilion
102. Gary Daigle & Tony Alonso Shaping Musical Liturgy
Explore the role of music in the prayer of the gathered community. Topics include the music minister, the role of the cantor, building an ensemble, music selection, the liturgical year, rites of initiation, the introductory rite, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, Liturgy of the Hours. Sponsored by GIA Publications, Inc.
- Briar Park 1-2
103. Amy Florian Forgive: Let Go and Be Free
Most of us have been taught many things about forgiveness, from the time our parents first made us apologize to siblings for hitting them. But what if most of what we've been taught is not true? What if continuing in your same patterns means you cannot fully forgive, heal, and free your heart? In this retreat-like session, the talks challenge old notions of forgiveness and reconciliation, and the quiet time allows you to reflect, pray, and open yourself to the freedom and joy that come from true forgiveness.
- Ballroom F-G
104. Dr. Richard Gaillardetz Becoming a Global Church: Reflections on the Catholicity of the Church
One of the most important developments in the church over the last fifty years has been the flourishing of Catholic Christianity in the southern hemisphere. With this growth has come a new awareness of what it means to speak of our church as "catholic." This breakout session will explore how a more profound understanding of the church's catholicity, first evident at Pentecost, challenges the way we understand our church today.
- Westchase 3-4
205. Anna Scally Tune In: Use Their Issues, Teach to Their Issues, Touch Their Hearts
This workshop will show you that young peoples' issues are found in their culture and expressed in popular music and media. And so are the solutions to their concerns. You will learn effective, practical and easy to use strategies to catechize through music that they are already listening to. Co-Sponsored by Cornerstone Media

Briar Park 1-2	606. Deacon Arturo Monterrubio Family &amp; Vocations in Catechetical Ministry I don't think it's a coincidence that the decline in religious vocations in the United States mirrors the decline in the traditional family structure. Pope John Paul II wrote in Familiaris Consortio that "the future of humanity passes by way of the family". As a catechist, we have the opportunity and privilege to encourage all kind of persons in their life journey, from womb to tomb, to contemplate the possibility of a vocation to follow Christ. We will review some ways to encourage fostering vocations in the midst of our families.
Ballroom C	607. Sr. Digna Vela The Life, Time, and Works of St. Paul Pope Benedict XVI has declared 2008-2009 as the "Year of St. Paul." This workshop will consider the life and times of this prominent personality of the New Testament. An overview of the themes found in Paul's letters will be discussed.
Richmond 1-2	608. Timothy Welch Proclaiming our Story through Media and Technology: We Have a Story to Tell! We have been called to tell the Story of Jesus Christ and to tell it well. Join us as we explore over two thousand years of catechetical media methods, from oral traditions to podcasting proclamations, leading up to the technological tools of today...and perhaps beyond! Sponsored by Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Religion Publishers
Westchase 1-2	610. Rev. Timothy Piasecki The Christian Initiation of Children....the basics A conversation about the preparation children of catechetical age for the sacraments of initiation. This session assumes some knowledge of and some experience with the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

Sábado 14 de Febrero del 2009

8:00 am	Inscripción y exhibiciones en el vestíbulo del "Grand Pavilion"
8:45 am - 9:30 am	Bienvenida/Oración inicial en el "Grand Pavilion"
9:45 am - 11:00 am	Sesiones #300's
Richmond 1-2	301. Padre Dat Hoang Descubriéndonos a nosotros mismos y nuestra misión por medio de la Palabra de Dios ¡Antes de formarte en el seno de tu madre, ya te conocía! (Jeremías 1:5). ¿Alguna vez usted se ha preguntado que pudo tener Dios en mente cuando él le creó? En esta sesión veremos como la Biblia es un "manual" magnífico para ayudarnos a descubrir nuestra verdadera identidad-propia y la misión que Dios pudo tener para nosotros como sus discípulos.
Richmond 3	302. Padre Timothy Piasecki La Iniciación Cristiana de los Niños ...los fundamentales Una conversación sobre la preparación de los niños de edad catequética para los sacramentos de iniciación. Esta sesión presume el conocimiento de y la experiencia con el Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos.
Briar Park 1-2	303. Juan Rendón Animación bíblica con los jóvenes La conferencia presentará de manera dinámica la íntima relación y conexión que existe entre la Sagrada Escritura, la oración y los jóvenes. Al final de la conferencia el participante tendrá una guía que le facilite iniciar la animación bíblica entre los adolescentes y los jóvenes en la cual la oración (lectio divina) y la energía (dynamos) se combinan para que puedan saborear, vivir y comunicar la Palabra.
Westchase 3-4	304. Ricardo López Rosas, Ph.D Identidad y misión de la Palabra de Dios en el Evangelio de Juan Exposición sobre la Palabra (Lógos) como título cristológico de Jesús en el Cuarto Evangelio, enfatizando su trasfondo en el Antiguo Testamento y en el Judaísmo. Esto permitirá apreciar el sentido y relevancia de la Palabra para los grupos cristianos del movimiento juánico en el Siglo I d.C.
Ballroom F-G	305. Pía Septién ¿Cómo dirigir grupos en que se estudia la Sagrada Escritura? En la Epístola a los Hebreos dice que: "la Palabra de Dios es viva y eficaz". Es así como se nos presenta el reto del conocerla, entenderla y hacerla parte de nuestra vida. Para lo cual el estudio de la Biblia es la meneara eficaz para aprender y comprender la Sagrada Escritura, así como para vivir de acuerdo a ella.
11:00 am - 11:30 am	Descanso - Exhibiciones en el vestíbulo del "Grand Pavilion"
11:30 am - 12:30 pm	Conferencista principal
Grand Pavilion	400. Padre Allan Figueroa Deck La Cultura: El Verbo Se Encarna Esta plática desarrolla la idea de que el encuentro entre la Palabra de Dios y las culturas es el contexto para toda evangelización. Esto significa que la Palabra tiene que ser encarnada en la vida. El P. Deck discutirá como la razón, imaginación, memoria y voluntad se relacionan todas en este proceso y como el proceso varía de cultura en cultura. La falta de conciencia acerca de como funciona la cultura es un obstáculo mayor para la misión evangelizadora de la Iglesia hoy en el mundo donde las culturas se ponen en contacto cada vez más.
12:30 pm - 2:00 pm	Almuerzo - Exhibiciones en el vestíbulo del "Grand Pavilion"
2:00 pm - 3:15 pm	Sesiones #500's
Richmond 1-2	501. Miguel Arias El Evangelio de Lucas El encuentro con Dios y con su palabra viva que es Jesucristo, requiere de un encuentro personal que tiene una proyección clara en la comunidad llamada Iglesia. Este encuentro no es algo meramente emotivo, sino más bien, el fortalecimiento de una amistad que se hace vida en una comunidad que ora y celebra lo que cree. Patrocinado por Loyola Press
Briar Park 1-2	502. Juan Rendón Evangelización de los primeros educadores en la fe: los padres La conferencia ofrece una visión global de cómo debe llevarse a cabo la evangelización de los padres. Padres debidamente evangelizados pueden cambiar el rumbo de la sociedad y crear un renacimiento de la fe, la esperanza y la caridad.
Westchase 3-4	503. Ricardo López Rosas, Ph.D Cosechando la Palabra de Dios en una parcela de migrantes La sesión identificará algunos principios que algunos grupos católicos emplean cuando se reúnen a leer la Biblia y a compartir sus experiencias de migrantes latinos en los Estados Unidos, pues la Biblia ofrece privilegiadamente la poderosa Palabra de Dios a su pueblo que la escucha devotamente, y se compromete a hacerla vida. El estudio toma en cuenta los criterios propuestos en los recientes documentos del magisterio de la Iglesia Católica.
Ballroom F-G	504. Pía Septién ¿Por qué yo?: el dolor en la vida del cristiano (espiritualidad) Con frecuencia los cristianos, a quienes se nos ha enseñado que Dios es todo poderoso, todo amor, infinitamente sabio, infinitamente justo; nos preguntamos: ¿Por qué permite Dios el dolor? Esta conferencia busca ayudarnos a reconciliar la existencia de un Dios todopoderoso con el dolor humano, pero sobre todo busca a ayudarnos a "sufrir mejor".
3:15 pm - 3:45 pm	Descanso - Exhibiciones en el vestíbulo del "Grand Pavilion"
3:45 pm - 4:45 pm	Conferencista principal
Ballroom DE	600. Barbara Reid, O.P. Fundamentos bíblicos para la construcción de la paz Una exploración cercana del estilo de vida y enseñanzas de Jesús en torno al perdón y la reconciliación (ej. Mt. 5, 38-48; 18, 21-35; 26, 28), mientras creaba comunidades de amigos, yendo más allá de sus diferencias naturales hasta el punto de estar dispuestos a dar su vida por amor al prójimo (Juan 13, 1-20).
5:15 pm - 6:30 pm	Celebración Eucarística en el "Grand Pavilion"
